

Monday 18th June 2018

Digital Health Forum: Scaling Digital Health Innovation through Platforms

12.00	Registration & light lunch
13.00	Welcome
13.05	Keynote Professor Geoffrey Parker, Dartmouth University & MIT and author Platform Revolution 2016
13.45	Session 1 – Scaling Innovations in Healthcare Presentations from two innovative companies currently scaling innovations in healthcare <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Adrian Hosford from Moodscope2. Stephen Johnston from Aging2.0
14.10	Panel 1 – Challenges and opportunities for scaling in the health system Panel discussion on challenges and ideas to scale up each company featured in session 1 <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Financial perspective - Alan Barrell, Venture Capitalist2. Clinical perspective - Amanda Begley, Director of Innovation and Implementation, NIA3. Health System perspective - Nigel Edwards, CEO, Nuffield Trust4. Public/user/engaged citizen – TBC
15.00	Plenary Q&A and discussion
15.15	Coffee Break
15.45	Session 2 – The future of algorithms in chronic disease Samer Faraj, Professor and Canada Research Chair in Technology, Management, and Healthcare; Director, McGill University
16.05	Panel 2 – Accessibility of patient data and scaling through platforms <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Legislation perspective (GDPR) - David Kennedy2. Academic perspective: Marleen Huysman3. Clinician perspective: Dr. Azhar Ansari4. Industry perspective: (Speaker TBC)
16.50	Table Discussions - What are the opportunities open to digital scale?
17.30	Feedback and plenary discussion
17.55	Closing comments
18.00- 20:00	Networking buffet
